Could Use Economic Weapons.

Pointing out that an association of na tions would be compelled to use force to prevent any nation from committing as act of aggression, the Gazette says that if the United States joined with European peacemakers economic weapons would

The Pall Mall Gazette says:

The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"Enforcement of peace is precisely what we ourselves are pursuing in what we believe to be the most effective—indeed, the only—way. But it is worth while noting that if the President is not a partner to that undertaking and is obliged to limit his interest in the subject to an academic sphere his aspirations seem to coincide closely enough with those objects for which the allies are making their heroic sacrifices."

"The allies are fighting, the newspaper says, for precisely President Wilson's doctrine of the autonomy of individual nations.

Vatican Organ Praises Speech.

ROME, May 28, 9:10 p.m.-The Corriere D'Italia, the semi-official organ of the Vatican, gives high praise to the speech of President Wilson before the League to Enforce Peace. The pa-

"This speech is the most eloquent manifestation of President Wilson's work for peace and of his desire to be a mediator. He was most tactful in work for peace and of his desire to be a mediator. He was most tactful in alluding to the rights of small states, which include the questions of the future of Belgium, Serbia, Poland and Armenia. From across the ocean Fresident Wilson answers the Fope, who was the first to raise a voice defending principles which the war may have obscured momentarily, but which remain immortal.

Sion is not void, although the District laws require a real estate broker or agent to pay an annual license fee of $50, and declare that every person who sells or offers for sale as the agent for others real estate wherever located, shall be regarded as a broker.

The District Court of Appeals so held today in an oning by Lustice Van a return to justice and fraternity among the peoples. Their union is a consoling spectacle among the painful sights of this period of blood and hatred. Even if President Wilson's initiative fails the world must rejoice at his intention."

The Tribuna likens President Wilson's suggestion to advice "to put salt on a bird's tail." since his suggestions, while ideally acceptable by every one, are difficult practically.

HEARINGS TO BE GIVEN ON THE DISTRICT BILL

Early Consideration of House Measure Promised by Senate Subcommittee Chairman.

Senator John Walter Smith of Maryland, chairman of the subcommittee of the Senate appropriations committee charged with handling the District appropriation bill, said today that it was his purpose to get to work on the bill as soon as possible. He said also that the subcommittee probably would give hear-

To Ask Views of Joint Committee.

It is expected the subcommittee will seek to learn from the Senate members of the joint select committee of Congress which reported last winter on the fiscal relations of the United States and the District of Columbia making contracts."

real estate business in this District, declares the majority of the court, the prohibition being only against the agent who may be punished.

"In other words," says Justice Van Orsdel, "the purpose of the statute is to raise revenue for the District of Columbia, not to make the lawful business of real estate brokerage unlawful nor to bar real estate brokers from making contracts." States and the District of Columbia whether the House bill bears out their recommendations.

Senator Works to Fight the Bill.

Senator Works is planning to com bat strongly the passage by the Senate of th ebill i nthe form in which it passed the Senate in that shape. It is believed, however, that the bill will be very much amended before it reaches the Senate from the committee. Senator Chilton of West Virginia, who was chairman of the joint select committee, reserved his opinion of the bill while it was in the House, but it is expected about it now that the bill has reached

BATHING BEACH SEASON IS TO BEGIN JUNE 10

Washington's bathing beach season will begin June 10, it was announced

Both municipal and playground pools will be opened then, but the former will run only on half-day schedules until the close of schools, June 21.

If the Commissioners approve a schedule of hours arranged by Dr. Sidney L. Cousins, superintendent of the municipal beach, the time allotted women for exclusive use of the pools will be considerably increased. It is proposed to turn over the pools to them from 7 until 12 noon Mondays and Fridays, the time last year having been from 7 until 10 a.m. on these days. Also they will be given the customary Wednesday afternoons, from 2 until Concession to Small Boys.

Another innovation this year will be the granting of permission to small of War, was defeated, 34 to 23. Dem boys to use the pools clad only in trunks. It is planned to build chutes into the pools, which are expected to add reene, Shafroth, Tag reatly to the sport of the younger greatly to the sport of the younger Inasmuch as the playgrounds department will open three new pools this year, at the Georgetown, Rosedale and Howard grounds, the demand on the municipal pools by the juvenile population is expected to be relieved. Dr. Cousins will be assisted at the beach this year by Emmet Haitigan, William Cusack and Clarence Weaver, guards, in view of the increased facilities provided by the playgrounds department. vided by the playgrounds department, attendance at the various municipal pools this season is expected to break all records.

MOHAWK RUNS AGROUND.

Coast Guard Cutters Androscoggin

and Itasca Go to Her Relief. NEW LONDON, Conn., May 29 .- Coast guard cutters Androscoggin and Itasca left this port this morning to go to the assistance of coast guard cutter Mchawk, which grounded near Montauk Peint early today.

Claims German Pledge Violated. was sunk by a German submarine in

UNLICENSED AGENT MAY COLLECT FEE

Appellate Court Affirms Ruling in Case of Daniel B. Lloyd, Real Estate Broker.

FAILURE TO PAY ANNUAL LICENSE IS HELD NO BAR

W. W. Johnson Loses Suit to Recover Commission-Chief Justice Shepard Dissents.

An unlicensed real estate agent may ollect a commission on a sale made b him and a contract for such commis sion is not void, although the District oday in an opinion by Justice Van orsdel in a suit brought by William W. Orsdel in a suit brought by William W. Johnson to recover from Daniel B. Lloyd a commission on a sale of land in Maryland. The opinion affirms the ruling of the District Supreme Court. In a dissenting opinion Chief Justice Shepard declares that the plaintiff "deliberately violated the law in acting as a real estate broker without paying the license fee required of him by the law. This the statute expressly prohibits him from doing. To permit the enforcement of a contract made under such circumstances would be to ensuch circumstances would be to en-courage others to avoid the payment of the license taxes required of them in order that their business be made lawful.

tract made in violation of a penal law can be enforced in the courts of the jurisdiction whose laws have been trampled upon and set at defiance." The majority opinion points out that while it is undoutedly a general rule of law that contracts made in violation of statutes are void, yet the courts have found exceptions to this rule. Where it is manifest, it states, that the enactment was not intended to imply a prohibition or to render the prohibited act vold the courts will so construe the statute. Where the statute seeks only the collection of revenue, says the court, as ours clearly does, there can be no doubt as to its purpose and meaning. aw that contracts made in violation of Contracts Not Prohibited.

"In the present case," says Justice Van Orsdel, "the statute does not expressly prohibit the making of the consubcommittee probably would give hearings on the measure. The extent of these hearings, he said, the committee would have to decide.

The residents of the District who feel that an injustice has been done them in the bill as it passed the House, therefore, will be given opportunity to be heard by the Senate committee, an opportunity which they did not have in the House.

To Ask Views of Joint Committee.

Senator Works of California and Senator Saulsbury of Delaware, members of the joint select committee, have already said that they do not think that the House bill bears out recommendations of that committee.

making contracts.'

to Reduce Appropriations From $43,000,000 to $20,000,000.

A motion to send the forty-threemillion-dollar rivers and harbors bill back to committee with instructions to substitute a bill providing a lump sum of $20,000,000 was rejected by the Senate today, 41 to 27. The Senate then adopted as an amendment Senator Newlands' protwo Senate and two House committees, to insure co-operation with the army engineers and other government bureaus in investigating waterway imwas defeated, 37 to 21.

An amendment by Senator Kenyon to provide for a non-partisan waterways commission of five went out on a point of order.

Hav Dank in Government governm point of order.

Senator Kenyon's motion to substitute for the bill a resolution author izing an appropriation of $25,000,000 for continuing work on all existing projects, the distribution to be left to the army engineers and the Secretary crats who voted for the substitute were Ashurst, Gore, Husting, Lane, Pom-erene, Shafroth, Taggart, Thomas,

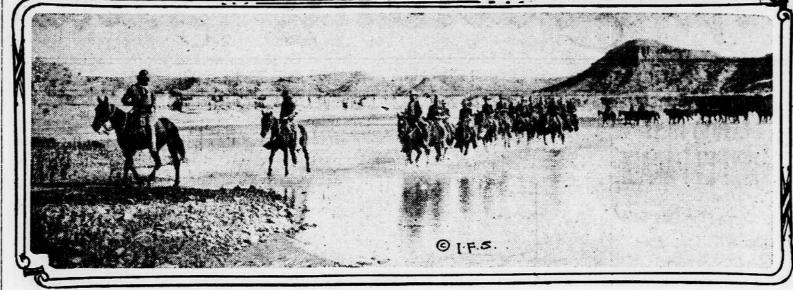

MARCH IN PARADE

(Continued from First Page.) at its headquarters in the Star build-

Yachting Clubs of D. C. May Participate in Preparedness Demonstration on Flag Day

A movement to have all the yachting clubs of the District take part in the preparedness demonstration Flag day, June 14, suggested by A. H. Gregory to the National Yacht Club, has been taken up by the club. At a called meeting held PARIS, May 29.—The torpedoing of yesterday Commodore John Walcott was the Italian steamship Moravia, which instructed to get in communication with the Capital, Corinthian, Eastern and the Mediterranean May 25, "constitutes a formal contravention of the German engagements contained in the German note to the American government of May 4," says the Tomps. "Germany, however," the newspaper adds, "will not fail to seek to justify her act."

TROOPS CROSSING RIO GRANDE IN CHASE OF BANDITS.

MAJ. LANGHORNE (EXTREME LEFT) AT THE HEAD OF TROOPS "A" AND "B," STH UNITED STATES CAVALRY.

IS STRICKEN BY DEATH

Was for More Than Twenty-Seven Years Society Editor of The Star.

Once Interviewed Pope in Rome and Reported Queen's Jubilee for London Times.

MISS HELENA McCARTHY.

Miss Helena McCarthy, for more than twenty-seven years society editor of The Star, died at her residence, 915 15th street northwest, at 1:45 o'clock vesterday afternoon. Funeral services are to be held a 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at St IN MONEY FOR RIVERS 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at St. Matthew's Church, where Rev. Charles M. Bart, pastor of St. Teresa's Church M. Bart, pastor of St. Teresa's Church, Anacostia, a lifelong friend of the deceased, will say low requiem mass. In-Refuses to Recommit Harbors Bill terment, which will be private, will be in the family burial plot in Mount

Theodore W. Noyes, Rudolph Kauffmann, Victor Kauffmann, Beale R. Howard, Robert J. Wynne, Charles Rauscher, Judge William H. De Lacy, Jules Guthridge and J. Henry Small. Active pallbearers are to be G. A. Lyon, It.: Henry Hanford, Charles to assist the Buckeye state's "favorite to the convention are expected to arrive, and before Thursday all of the forty-eight delegates will be here boosting for Burton. The Columbia Glee Club, one of the most famous of republican campaign organizations, will arrive before the end of the week to assist the Buckeye state's "favorite Lyon, jr.; Henry Hanford, Charles provement. The amendment would appropriate $500,000 for the commission's expenses.

Chairman Clarke of the commerce committee said he saw no objection to it, as it might furnish a basis in the conference for working out a new method of dealing with river and harbor appropriations that would put an end to the ever-recurrent criticism of the present system.

An amendment by Senator Taggart to provide that no appropriation should be available until the Secretary of War determined that it was for a project essential to the interests of commerce essential to the interests of commerce of was defeated, 37 to 21.

At one "desk," with a view to learning definitely who was entitled to be styled the believe the principal planks in the platform will include the following on andidates to begin Friday. June 9, and that preparations are ready for a Monday session, if necessary.

The Ohio advance guard was joined lost night by Elmer Dover, a former Ohioan, who in the campaigns of 1836 and 1900 was the secretary of the reprised sof service, so that Miss McCarthy a profound knowledge of the unwritten code which govers to provide that no appropriation should be available until the Secretary of War declaration in favor of a protect of the washington and of the list. Here long and intimate connection with official society in the National Capital be available until the Secretary of War declaration in favor of a protect of the washington and the platform will include the follow and that preparations are ready for a Monday session, if necessary.

The Ohio advance guard was joined lost night by Elmer Dover, a former Ohioan, who in the campaigns of 1836 and 1900 was the secretary of the reprise of the reprise of the washington and the platform will include the follow-ing in the platform will include the platform will often platform will often platform will often platform will often p

Born in Washington.

Miss McCarthy, who was the daughte of the late Charles M. and Catherine McCarthy, was born and lived her en tire life in the family home, where she died. As a girl she attended the Immaculate Conception Academy. Her uncle, the late Rev. Frank P. McCarthy, was pastor for many years of Immaculate Conception Church. When a young girl Miss McCarthy determined to make newspaper writing the work of her life, and in order that she might gain a knowledge of all phases of the profession she obtained employment at the old Columbia Bank Note Company, then on Pennsylvania avenue, where she learned the various stages connected with the printing craft, such as proofreading, etc. She continued in avitive newspaper work until stricken maculate Conception Academy. Her tive newspaper work until stricken with the illness which terminated in her death vesterday. Miss McCarthy was a lifelong men Miss McCarthy was a lifelong member of the parish of St. Matthew's Catholic Church.
Surviving her are a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Dwyer and a brother, John B. McCarthy.

"HYPHEN" DARKENS

sistant attorney general during the Taft administration, is expected from Wash-The honorary pallbearers are to be ington today to join Burton's forces.

Theodore W. Noyes, Rudolph Kauff- Today several members of the Ohio to assist the Buckeye state's "favorite

(Name of officer making entry)

(Address)

PREPAREDNESS PARADE UNIT ENTRY BLANK

Dear Sir: Kindly assign place in line for.....(Name of organization)

Mr. Melvin C. Hazen, Marshal, Preparedness Parade,

Evening Star Building, Washington, D. C.

/ Executive officers:

ore intimate acquaintance or main- defeat merchant marine legislation pur- cussed by members of the nationa tained closer relations with the wives posed by republicans, opposed fortifyof Presidents of the United States than ing the Panama canal and was luketained closer relations with the wives of Presidents of the United States than Miss McCarthy. The same relations existed between Miss McCarthy and wives of members of the cabinets of the presidents as well as wives of senators and representatives in Congress, and others who by reason of their position were prominent in the official social activities of Washington.

Miss McCarthy covered" and wrote the inaugural balls and the features connected therewith from Grant's second inauguration to that of President Wilson. Her first notable work was at Grant's second inaugural in 1873 for the Washington bureau of the Baltimore Sun. For a number of years shows as Washington society correspondent for the New York Herald, Chicago Times, San Francisco Chronicle and Hartford Times, in which publications the work was the candidacy of any other man or mental through.

Born in Washington.

Miss McCarthy and wives of senators and representatives in Congress, and in world be impossible. Mr. Mooney, Burton manager, gave out this statement on the anonymous post all the anonymous pastal cards have been sent to delegates to the republicant convention and perhaps to others at tacking Senator Burton's record in Congress, and the official social to the republicant of the temporal post card incident:

"It has been called to my attention of the temporation of committee reports which of estation and consideration of committee reports which of estation and consideration of committee reports which of convention and perhaps to others at tacking Senator Burton's record in Congress, It is unnecessary for me to say that any one who employs anonymous postal cards have been sent to delegates to the republicant convention and perhaps to others at tacking Senator Burton's record in Congress. It is unnecessary for me to say that any one who employs anonymous postal cards have been sent to delegates to the republicant convention of the sent to delegates to the republicant convention man perhaps to others at tacking Senator Burton's record in Congress

Ior Mr. Hughes will be opened.
"None of us is authorized to speak for Mr. Hughes," said the former Postmaster General. "Mr. Hughes is not a candidate. Those of us who are urging his nomination are working entirely on our own responsibility and as well believe are performing a patriotic service." patriotic service.

patriotic service."

Elihu Root's headquarters has sent out a letter to each delegate, which says that the American situation "is too big for trifling; that it calls for big men acting in a big way." It claims that Mr. Root, nominated on a ringing American platform of basic republican principles, would sweep the country.

Congressional Union Plans to Talk Suffrage in Chicago A campaign in advance of the Woman's Party convention to be held in Chicago June 5, 6 and 7, to acquaint the voting ing, with its 12,025 seats for delegates, vomen of the country with the fact that suffrage is to be an issue in the next election, has been launched by the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage. Thirty meetings a day are being held in hicago, which is the center of the at- until a few days before the date of the

Continued from First Page.)

in the end will throw the nomination to another."

G. W. Mooney, manager of Mr. Burton's campaign, has been joined by enthusiastic lieutenants from Washington, D. C., and Ohio. Wade H. Ellis, assistant attorney general during the Taft administration, is expected from Washington today to join Burton's forces.

circles and even dances.

Miss Mabel Vernon of Wilmington, Del., is at the head of this corps, while assisting her are Miss Margaret Whittenore of Detroit, Miss Elsie Hill of Connecticut, Miss Vivian Pierce of San Francisco, Miss Elizabeth Elder of Philadelphia and a number of others. Activities are directed from the convention head-quarters, 73 Washington street, where new members are enrolled, meetings held and plans for conventions mapped out.

It has been decided to make the "suffrage first" luncheon, to be held at the Auditorium Hotel June 7, the red-the Auditorium Hotel June 7, the red-letter event of convention week. Cov-ers will be laid for 1,000 suffragists. Posters in purple, white and gold are being displayed in Chicago advertising

Mr. Hilles Thinks Platform

Secretaries of War, Interior, Agriculture and Commerce, and chairmen of two Secretaries of States her newspaper work and commerce and c Differences Over Woman Suffrage.

On the question of national woman suffrage, Chairman Hilles said there was a difference of opinion among the party leaders and he did not know what action the convention would take on the subject.

office for the use of delegates and others. In the annex adjoining the amain building commodious and well appointed meeting rooms have been prepared for the use of the republican national committee and the committees of the convention. In carrying out this work his principal assistant has been edwin P. Thayer of Indianapolis. on the subject. The National Congressional Union is the first organization to make formal application to appear before the committee on resolutions of the convention. It will urge the republicans to insert a plank in favor of a suffrage amendment to the Constitution, and Chairman Hilles has promised the women a hearing before the committee. The only other organization thus far. women a hearing before the committee. The only other organization thus far to ask for a hearing is the Navy League of the United States, which will send a committee of twenty-five, headed by its president, Robert M. Thompson, to plead for a plank for the enlarrement of the navy.

In speaking of the probable action of the progressive national convention, called to be held June 7 in Chicago, simultaneously with the republican national convention, Chairman Hilles of the national convention, the National convention of the country he found there were more than 5,000 applications for the 700 seats provided.

He is now at work preparing the temporary role of delegates and alternates for the convention, and later will compared to the evidence in the contest cases of the country to the provided of the provided of the provided of the country befound there were more than 5,000 applications for the porary role of delegates and alternates for the convention, and later will compared to the provided of the tional convention, Chairman Hilles said:

"I imagine everybody assumes that the progressives will nominate Roosevelt for President. If the republican convention adopts a straightforward, sincere, ringing declaration of the vital public questions now being discussed, and nominates a man clearly equal to the important tasks which will confront the next President, Roosevelt might not think there would be any need of his entering the field. But if the republicans nominate a man who Mr. Roosevelt thinks is a 'misfortune' and adopts a platform which he regards as 'bunk' he may feel so outraged as to run, and perhaps help reelect President Wilson."

Denies Current Rumor.

to navigate the Mississippi river, is dead at his home here. Capt. Martin Chairman Hilles denied a report that the organization had ever thought of attempting to force the nomination of a candidate for President the first day of the convention.

"Such a plan has never even been dis-

BOTH SIDES CLAIM TO DROP BUSINESS REPULSE OF ENEMY ON MEMORIAL DAY

Germans and French Launch President Wilson Scheduled to Unsuccessful Attacks on the Verdun Front.

HEAVY ARTILLERY DUELS ON BOTH SIDES OF MEUSE

Front, and London Reports Attacks on British Positions.

PARIS, May 29, 11:45 a.m.-Two attacks were made by German troops advancing last night from Corbeaux wood, on the Verhe said. "The convention will follow precedent. It will meet at 11 a.m. Wed-nesday, June 7, listen to the address of dun front. The French war office report of today says these assaults resulted in failure.

East of the Meuse the night vas comparatively calm, except for heavy artillery action in the vicinity of Fort Vaux.

Fifteen aerial encounters octurred and two German machines vere brought down, one of them falling in flames. Official French Statement.

The text of the statement follows:

"South of Roye, in the region of Beuvraignes, French artillery over whelmed the first line German organ-"On the left bank of the River Meu-both the French and the German artilery were active last night. "Yesterday evening at 7 o'clock shire, Roy M. Watkins of Michigan

Coliseum Is Now Ready

Seats Provided for 12,025

Col. Stone in Full Charge.

Work of Mr. Reynolds.

convention. Under the direction of fu pile the evidence in the contest cases

Mark Twain's Instructor Dead.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, May 29 - shire, Roy M. Watkins of Michigan, Paul Haynes of Indiana, Frank H. Smith of New Jersey, James L. Phillips of the District of Columbia and R. J. Beamish of Pennsylvania.

Among the arrivals was Harry S. New, republican nominee for senator in Indiana.

John W. Dwight, manager of the Elihu Root campaign, announced that his candidate would not come to Chicago for the convention. German attack advancing from the Corbeaux woods was completely repulsed by our curtain of fire and the fire of our artillery. A second vigorous attack delivered at about midnight in the same locality also was driven

"On the right bank of the river the night passed in relative calm except in the region of the fort of Vaux. Here there was very spirited artillery fight-"In the Lorranie district we have disfor Republican Convention;

persed a strong German reconneitering party in the forest of Parroy.

Fifteen Attacks by Airmen.

CHICAGO, May 29.-Work of pre "French pilots yesterday delivered apring the Chicago Coliseum for the afteen attacks upon German aerorepublican national convention, June planes. Two of the enemy machines , has been completed. The big buildwere brought down. One fell flaming on the edge of the Argonne forest near alternates and visitors, is ready. The Monthers, and the others came down in speaker's platform, the new balcony the region of Ami-Fontaine, north of erected to provide additional seats, have been painted and every chair is in place Berry-au-Bac. "While one of our pilots was making a trial flight in the region north of the The decorations will not be put up Chicago, which is the center of the attacks of the union's corps of speakers. These speakers have been conducting their campaign at club meetings, church meetings, trade union sessions, sewing circles and even dances.

Miss Mabel Vernon of Wilmington, Del., is at the head of this corps, while assisting her are Miss Margaret Whittemore of Detroit, Miss Doris Stevens of Omaha, Miss Elsie Hill of Connectitut, Miss Vivian Pierce of San Franciut, Miss Vivian Pier Meuse cannon mounted on automobiles brought down two German air ma-chines, the first to the north of Avo-court, and the second in the direction

With the approval of Chairman Hilles of Forges.'

Artillery Duels Continue. BERLIN, May 29, via London, 4:10 .m.-Violent artillery duels are conthe use of the convention. Col. Stone is inuing on both banks of the Meuse. a veteran and an expert in his line, on the Verdun front, the war office anon the Vertuin from, the war once announced today. French troops made two weak attacks on Cumieres village, taken last week by the Germans, but these were easily repulsed.

The text of today's army headquarters statement follows:

"Enemy monitors which approached the cost were driven off by our artist. having personally supervised the work of arranging the party's national convention halls in 1904, 1908 and 1912.

and Ueal Williams.

Dean of Society Editors in U. 8. She point of length of service Miss McCarthy stood at the head of the newspaper society editors of the United paper socie tile artillery fire than usual in the Fri-court and Mametz sectors, the Hohen-zollern redoubt and St. Eloi. We shelled the enemy trenches west of Beauvrains and opposite Hannescamps with you effect with good effect.

"The enemy's trench mortars were active about Anchuille, south of Serre and the quarry.
"Our aeroplanes, taking advantage of the fine weather, accomplished useful work; the hostile aeroplanes were not active." GAIN HEADWAY IN AFRICA.

British, Belgian and Portuguese Forces Operating Against Germans. LONDON. May 29 .- The British. Belgian and Portuguese forces who have invaded German East Africa are slowly but surely forming a ring around the Germans, while Gen. Smuts, the Boer to be heard by the national commit-tee June 1. He has been in Chicago since May 15, and his official duties commander of the South African forces is rounding up the Germans who are will not be concluded until after he has read the official call to the assem-bled delegates and alternates the open-ing day of the convention. defending the Usanbara railway and has occupied one of the important stations on that line as well as other towns in the district, according to an offical report issued today.

A British force penetrated twenty Capt. Abner Martin, aged ninety-six, miles into German territory on the who as a pilot before the civil war front between Lakes Nyanzi and Tang taught Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) anyika.

The Germans have retired toward New Langenberg. The Beigians are ad-vancing from the northeast and Port uguese troops are occupying the south

Cattle branding in the west is dying out, and, like the cowboy and the thrilling round-up, is going to the scrap heap. Land fencing is the cause.

Deliver Address at Arlington Tomorrow.

LATER IN THE AFTERNOON WILL GO TO BALTIMORE

Numerous Air Battles on Western Gift of Embroidery at White House to Betoken Gratitude of Belgian People.

The Memorial day spirit will govern Wilson has no engagements to receive visitors and there will be no meeting the cabinet. The President is scheduled to speak at Arlington at 1 o'clock in the afternoon under the auspices of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R., and his address, in view of the European war, expected to touch upon the patriotic impulses of the people and the loyality to the United States that should characterize all classes of citizens

Later in the afternoon the President will go to Baltimore as a guest of the Frolic of the Friars in that city.

The President was pretty busy today with a number of callers. Several senators who had appointments with him were compelled to cancel their engagements because of the necessity for their presence in the Senate to vote upon the river and harbor bill.

President Invited to Roanoke

Representative Glass of Virginia called on the President with prominent Virginia democrats to ask him to visit Roanoke Friday next and talk before the democratic state convention in session there The President indicated that he might do so and said he would give Mr. Glass an answer in a short time.

answer in a short time.

Further evidences of the grattitude of Belgian people to the United States were manifest today in the presentation to President and Mrs. Wilson of beautiful embroidery work from the women of that country, sent here by Maj. Wallace Winchell of the Salvation Army, who has been doing relief work in Belgium. Maj. Winchell has been working along the line of helping Belgian farmers secure lands and supplies for this year's crop and thinks that after the present year the Belgians will be better able to care for themselves.

Embroidery on Flour Sacks. The cloth upon which the embroidery vas placed was cotton from sacks sent rom the United States containing flour Maj. Winchell said he did not look for peace in Europe for a long time to come. peace in Europe for a long time to come. "The allies may be able to eventually drive the Germans back from their present positions, but each time they will fall back upon stronger positions, and I have no idea that the allies will ever be able to get into German territory, no matter how long the war lasts. There seems to be an inexhaustible supply of men for the German army."

POPE DEPLORES CRUELTIES. Thinks More Humane Conduct Might Hasten End of War.

ROME, May 28, via Paris, May 29, 10.55 .m.-Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state, is quoted by Rome newspapers to the effect that Pope Benedict, while maintaining strictest neutrality, deplores the anti-Christian and inhumane aspects of the war. In the absence of satisfactory evidence of an impartial nature he Pope is unable to pass judgment on charges of improper conduct of war made

The Pope is represented as cherishing gree of Christian tolerance on both sides. by partial renunciation of claims and by keener sympathy for suffering peoples.

LOSS PLACED AT $600,000.

Fire Partially Destroys Fish Com-

